

Genesis 1:26-30; 2:4-23; Psalm 139:1-18; Patriarchs and Prophets, pp. 45-62

ll week God had been busy creating a lovely world! It was the sixth day, and He had finished creating all the animals. Now He knelt down, pushed and arranged, lifted and molded. Soon He had a strong, smooth body made of the fresh earth. I can imagine that for a moment He just looked at it, smiling at the thought of the wonderful times they would share together. "Oh, my dear Adam," God might have said. "How I love you!"

Then God bent down and breathed His breath of life into the form He had made. Instantly Adam's chest began to move up and down as his lungs inhaled the fresh, clean air. Smiling into his Creator's face, Adam sat up! "Hello, Lord," he might have said. God showed Adam all around his beautiful new garden home. "Adam, you may name the animals."

Adam grinned as he looked around. What a fun job! He got started right away. But as he worked, he noticed that every animal God had created had a mate. Was there a mate for him? While Adam rested in a deep sleep, God took one of his ribs and formed a beautiful

The Message We praise God for creating us.

woman out of the soft earth. When Adam woke up and saw his mate, he was filled with love!

God blessed the first bride and groom. They spent their very first whole day together enjoying God's company. God gave them the Sabbath as a special gift. They loved the garden home God had made for them. Each evening, they would walk together in the Garden and talk with Him. It was such a wonderful time; they couldn't wait to be with God!

One sad day, however, Adam and Eve made a wrong choice. They chose to listen to Satan. God had told them they could eat of every tree in the Garden except one, the tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil. The happy

Memory Verse

"God created man in his own image . . . male and female he created them" (Genesis 1:27, NIV).

couple didn't want any part of that! But unfortunately, Eve left Adam's side and ate the fruit that the serpent, who was really Satan, offered her. Then she shared it with Adam.

Immediately, instead of wanting to be with God, they felt afraid and hid from Him! But God still loved them. He did not stop lov> ing them because they did the wrong thing. He had made them in His image, and He would always love them. Because Adam and Eve disobeyed God, they had to leave their garden home. No longer could they meet God and walk with Him in the evenings. But God loved them so much that He had made a special plan so that one day they could live with Him again. God loves us, and He wants us to live with Him too.

SING "Wonderful, Wonderful" (Sing for Joy, No. 39) together before prayer.

PRAY Ask God to help you make good choices today.

