

Gone Fishing!

Matthew 4:18-22; Luke 5:1-11; The Desire of Ages, pp. 244-251

Have you ever watched people fish? They usually sit very still and wait. Simon Peter has been sitting in his boat all night and has not caught a thing. Let's look in and see what is happening.

A cool night breeze blew over the waters of Lake Gennesaret. Simon Peter was fishing with his partners, James and John. He tossed his big fishing net out over the water. He heard a swishing sound and then a splat as it fell. Slowly, slowly, it sank beneath the surface of the water. Simon Peter checked the position of the moon and stars to tell the time. Soon the sun would be rising. And still he had not caught a single fish. James and John, in their own boat, weren't catching anything either.

In a few minutes, Simon Peter began to haul in the net, hand over hand. He hoped to see the glimmer of fish in the moonlight. But there was nothing. He piled the dripping net in the back of the boat. Then he began to pull on the oars and head back to shore.

The sky began to change from black to pink. Simon Peter laid out his net and began to clean it. He was so busy that he didn't notice Jesus. Jesus was coming closer, followed by a crowd of people. He was telling them how much God loved them. The people really wanted to hear.

They crowded so close to Jesus, that He stepped into Simon Peter's boat to keep from being pushed into the water. Simon Peter was happy to share his boat with Jesus.

The people did not want to leave. But Jesus needed to get away for a while.

He said to Simon Peter, "Take your boat out into the deep water, Simon Peter, and let down your nets."

"Oh, Master," Simon Peter replied.

"I've been on this lake all night long with James and John. And we didn't catch one fish!" He paused and thought for a minute. "But if You

The Message

I help others learn about Jesus when I follow His example.

Memory Verse

“Come, follow me,
... and I will make you fishers of men’ ”

say so, I will try again.”

With a swishing sound the net flew up into the air. It landed with a splat on the water, then sank silently.

In a few minutes, Simon Peter began to pull in the net. He could not believe it. The net was full of glimmering, writhing fish! It was so full that the net almost broke. Simon Peter called to James and John, “Bring your boat and help me!”

Soon the floors of both boats were covered with the silvery fish. Piles of fish reached up the sides of the boats and threatened to sink them!

When Simon Peter saw all the fish, he knelt before Jesus and said, “Leave me. I am a sinful man.”

But Jesus said, “Don’t be afraid. Follow Me, and you will be a fisher of men.”

Simon Peter, James, and John dragged their loaded boats up onto the sand and left them there. They turned away from the biggest catch of their lives and left all behind to follow Jesus. They would serve Him as long as they lived. And many people would learn of Jesus because of their work. They truly were fishers of men.

Fishermen were never invited to follow a rabbi and learn from him, so Jesus' invitation to Peter, James, and John was astonishing.

SUNDAY

READ For worship today read and discuss Matthew 4:18-22. Find the Sea of Galilee on a Bible map. Compare its size to a body of water in your country.

MAKE Make a paper boat and write your memory verse on it. Use it to teach the verse to your family. Then put it where you will see it often.

PRAY Pray that God will help you to listen to the right voices calling you.

TUESDAY

READ Read and discuss John 1:35-42 for family worship. What did Andrew do when he heard about Jesus? What can your family do to tell others about Jesus?

DO If you have a fish tank, look at the fish swim. Find out how they breathe. If you don't have a tank, visit an aquarium or pet shop to look at the fish.

MAKE Make five small boats from different household materials (aluminum foil, cork, paper, etc.). Which floats the best?

PRAY Thank God for all the wonderful creatures He has made.

SABBATH

DO Together with your family visit a place where you can see boats and people fishing. Discuss together what Peter's fishing boat may have looked like. How does it compare with the boats you see today?

PRAY Pray for fishermen and those who work on the sea.

MONDAY

READ Read and discuss Luke 5:1-11 during family worship. What does it mean to be a fisher of men? Sing "I Will Make You Fishers of Men" (Sing for Joy, No. 135) before prayer. Pray that you will be a good example to others.

DO When your Mother calls you, see if you can come as quickly as Peter, Andrew, James, and John.

THINK What type of nets do fishermen use today?

WEDNESDAY

SHARE For family worship read and discuss Mark 1:14-20. Ask an adult to tell about someone who is a role model for them.

DO Look in the newspaper and cut out pictures of leaders who are role models. As your family helps you make a collage, talk about how the leaders differ from Jesus. Pray for the leaders of your country.

PRAY Thank God for good role models. Ask Him to help you to be a good role model too.

THURSDAY

READ With your family read and compare Luke 5:1-11, Matthew 4:18-22, and Mark 1:14-20. They all tell the same story in a slightly different way. How are they alike? How are they different?

DO If possible, play Follow the Leader or Simon Says with some friends. Thank God for your friends.

FRIDAY

DO Help your family get ready for Sabbath without being prompted.

DO For worship today review Luke 5:1-11 and act it out with your family. Say your memory verse together. Sing "I Will Make You Fishers of Men" (Sing for Joy, No. 135) and other favorite songs. Then ask God to be with you on His holy Sabbath day.

Gone Fishing!

PUZZLE

Directions: Peter, James, and John went fishing, and their lives were changed forever. To find why their lives changed, darken the sections of the fishnet with dots in them.
